ELECTRONIC PRESS KIT

ABOUT

Los No Boss is Exeter's finest (and possibly only) purveyors of acoustic comedy music. Armed with two guitars, two voices, and one finely tuned sense of the ridiculous, Matt Hall and Si Wilkes blend razor-sharp wit with catchy acoustic melodies that turn every gig into a laughter-filled singalong.

Whether they're skewering everyday absurdities or telling tales of gloriously awkward moments, Los No Boss deliver a one-of-a-kind live experience that's as musically tight as it is hilariously loose.

REVIEWS

"Absolutely excellent! These guys are funny and musically talented. Had a full house shaking with laughter when we booked them for a gig. Professional attitude throughout and great to work with. Highly recommended by myself and all at Dawlish Rocks!"

KATHY HURRELL
MUSICAL DIRECTOR

"If anyone is ever looking for a good night out, these guys are a must. Something for everyone! Never before heard observations, clever songs and proper musicians. Simon and Matt always put on a most entertaining show."

THE BRIDGE INN
TOPSHAM

"The brilliant Los No Boss is a popular duo throughout the South West, and well known for their highly humorous original songs, many of which are about the Westcountry and the people that live here. In addition to their humour, the duo, who write all their own songs, create a great sound and cover a plethora of musical genres."

THE BICTON INN EXMOUTH

"Witty words and great riffs from a terrific local band with original songs about things in Devon we love to hate like the A38! Great guitar playing and vocals. Our festival crowd really warmed to them!"

FAMILIES FESTIVAL)
